

Dear Prospective Participant,

The following admission forms include questions on personal information about you and your experiences. This information is being collected in an effort to get to know you early on in your stay at the DUI Program and prior to your meeting with your assigned counselor.

Please take the time to review and answer these questions. Please bring your packet with you on admission day. You will have the opportunity to review this information and have any of your questions answered on admission day.

We thank you in advance and we look forward to seeing you soon.

Sincerely,
The Middlesex DUI Program
